

ROYAL FLAIR NEWSLETTER – JULY 2022

G'Day Royal Flarians and welcome to our July 2022 issue of

THE FLARIAN

G'Day everyone, hope you are keeping safe, warm and dry where ever you are. It will soon be Spring hopefully bringing us warmer weather and the chance to get out for a road trip. At this time we think of our many friends who are again going through floods in other states and our prayers and thoughts are with them. When things settle we must remember to support their towns and businesses and give them hope.

MAX'S MARKETING REPORT:

“Lots of new vans on the lot at our factory complex. If you were planning on popping over to check out our new range, this month would be a great time to do it. If you want to find out more info about any of the vans photographed here please let our receptionist know and Lena will find someone to assist you.

OOOPS!

Julie and John Zucker were enjoying their road trip when suddenly the unexpected happened, and, they are still laughing about it. When I asked our members if they had a funny event to tell us about in our newsletter they were quick to send this in.

“My husband John and I are fairly new to caravanning and are just at the end of our longest trip so far. We started from home in Adelaide and have stayed at Whyalla, Port Lincoln, Streaky Bay, Ceduna and Spear Creek and visited many small places in between. It has been a great trip which we have really enjoyed seeing so much of our amazing coastline and Flinders Ranges.

The funniest part of our trip was when John managed to lock us inside the van one night; don't ask me how! After fiddling about with the lock for half an hour and no one close by to help John ended up pulling the fly screen off a window and climbing out. I couldn't stop laughing. Has anyone else ever locked themselves inside their van?

Well done John! Had it been a few of us slightly bigger blokes there may have been a problem.
